

Who runs Going Bananas?

Malahide Presbyterian Church has run 'Going Bananas' with help from volunteers from across the country since 2001. It is run according to strict Child Protection Guidelines. We also enjoy the support of other local churches.

Where can I get more details?

You can find out more about our church family at our website www.hmpchurch.org (where you can also download copies of this flyer).

For more information about how we hold your data and your rights under Data Protection legislation please refer to our Church Privacy Policy which can be accessed on our website.

Please feel free to contact our Minister - Rev Alastair Dunlop at alastairdunlop@yahoo.com

Registration Form

We require the information from you to allow us to register your child for Going Bananas 22. We are collecting this information to enable the church to run the event safely, allow for protection of your interests in respect of dietary and medical requirements, and ensure we can contact you (or other nominated adult) in case of an emergency.

Data Protection legislation allows us to process this information as we regard it as being in the church's legitimate interest. If you are unable to supply the information requested then we will be unable to accept your child's participation.

I give permission for my child to attend 'Going Bananas' and to participate in all activities I understand that unless I specify otherwise, my child may be photographed as part of a group for publicity purposes.
